FOREWORD

Like the acorn, the human soul From the infinitesimal start Assumes its place on life's roll By living, taught to play its part.

Before the tree stands the sun, Toward wider vistas there to lead. So the school guides the young one, From student, adult; the oak from seed.

As earth and sun develop the tree
And strength and vigor into its limbs flow
Through wise guidance, studies, activities
The maturing mind and body grow.

As to the young oak in its forest world

To the student, life's magnificence is unfurled

— Joyce A. Phillip.

Principal O. B. Hayward

overseer reaps his first crop

As a garden needs an overseer to direct its growth, a school needs a principal to guide its progress.

Mr. Orville B. Hayward has successfully completed his first year as principal of George Rogers Glark School. Previous to his appointment at Glark, he served at Irving School in Hammond.

During the year several systems were revised by our new principal. We now have eight periods, due to the inauguration of staggered lunch hours. The alternoon hometoom periods were also discontinued.

Students must now obtain passes upon leaving, or to enter a classroom. To lessen the work of the office staff, Principal Hayward gave the job of signing absentee excuses to homeroom teachers.

The task of becoming principal of a strange school is not an easy one; there are many problems to solve. Mr. Hayward should be commended on the fine way in which he executed his duties.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Under the leadership of Superintendent Lee L. Galdwell, the Board of School Trustees is in charge of operating the entire Hammond school system.

This year Mr. R. B. Miller, Jornier Clark principal, was appointed to the position of assistant superintendent to Mr. Caldwell.

Seated - Mr. C. Scott, Mr. G. Gillett (Attorney), Mr. I. Caldwell Superintendent), Mr. C. Smith (Treasurer).

Standing = Mr. W. Thornton, Dr. H. Eggers (President), Mr. A. Spoeiner (Secretary), Mr. D.

TAKE A LETTER...

Efficient is the best word to describe our competent office stall. Mrs. Mabel Brown, Mrs. Esther Jacobs and Mrs. Florence schroer worked to aid Principal Hayward. General office work was their big job, along with serving the teachers' wants and needs.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of '47, we, the Class of '51, planted ourselves into the rich soil of knowledge of GRC... Mrs. Rebekah Eddy was to lead us through our four years of growth... We got under way by electing as our leaders: Jerry Kozak, president: Diana Wiley, vice-president: Bud Golubiewski, scretary, and Alex Lourik, treasurer... Bringing our "Freshie" year to an end, we chose the appropriate name, "Greenies Spring," and swung into the social world by sponsoring our first dance.

Surviving the first year we continued on . . . The "sophies" chose Jim Girman, president. Alex Lourik, vice-president: Joyce Phillip, secretary, and John Miskus, treasure . . . Goblins, witches and bats were among the decorations of our Halloween dance, "Witches Walkz"

We were really growing up fast . . . Starting a very busy year as juniors, we selected as president, Steve Statros, vice-president, John Miskus; secretary, Mella Kessler; and treasurer, Ross McGrea . . Three of our major tasks of the year were the selection of our class colors (slots) and yellow), our flower (tea rose)) and our motto ("No Mission Too Difficult=No Sacrifice Too Great) . . . Mrinam Blood was chosen to record the class history for our two remaining years . . . A comedy success, "The Man Who Came To Dinner," was presented as our first class play. Sailing into 1950 on the S.S. Junior "Ship Ahoy," a sock hop, we had one of the biggest dances of our career . . . Closing our third successful year, the long avaited Junior-Senior Prom was really "A Knight To Remember" . . . It featured the music of Hal Miller and his orchestra.

At long last we were seniors... Taking the leadership of the school into our hands, the Class of '51 began its final year by electing John Miskus, president. Dick Jones, vice-president. Angie Ambord, secretary; and Ross McCrea, treasurer... Steve Stavros was elected as president of the Student Council after a hectic campaign... "The Song of Bernadette," chosen as our Senior Play, will always be remembered as a moving drama. Sponsoring our fourth and last dance. "Arabian Fautasy" with Reynold Young and his orchestra, we brought to a close our social activities.... Joan Dolack, who was unable to continue school with our class due to illness for the past two years, was able to keep up her studies and graduate with us.

OUR SPONSOR...

Through four years of high school growth our class has known a true friend in our sponsor, Mrs. Rebekah Eddy. From the very beginning she has shown active interest in all our activities. Always ready to share experiences with us, she will remain in our memories long into the future. When problems arose, or advice was needed. Mrs. Eddy stood by with ready assistance. It is always hard to part with friends, but the moments of laughter, committee work, and class meetings we have shared will always linger in our hearts.

OUR JOB IS LAID OUT FOR US NEXT YEAR

The mainstays of next year's grid squad will be this year's froshesoph squad. An interesting sidelight on the past season is that a Pioneer team finally downed a Hammond High squad. The freshmen footballers mauled the young Wildcats. 38-0, and the combined frosh-soph eleven defeated the Purple, 19-6.

AFTER BIRDIES THEY GO

In Africa some of the native tribes practice the strange custom of beating the ground with clubs and uttering wild, blood-curdling yells. Authropologists call this a form of primitive self-expression. Here at Clark we call it golf.

The boys under careful instruction of Mr. Carlyle Sinder had spring practice at Wicker Park and Woodmar golf courses.

THEY GOVERN US WELL

Obtaining the necessary funds to purchase a public adthe system for the school was one of the main projects of the Student Council this year. Raising this money was made possible through a successful magazine drive sponsored by the Council members.

Promoting a system for noon hour recreation and establishing a hall receptionus to greet and direct visitors to the school were projects undertaken by the Council. During the second semester a simshine club was organized. These members sent getwell cards to students who were ill and absent for a long time.

CHEMISTS EXPERIMENT

"Let's reorganize the Chemistry Club," was the beginning of this year's club for chemists. The club consisted of members of the chemistry classes, Miss Veva McAtee, chemistry instructor, served as sponsor.

The group net once every three weeks. Each member of the club was assigned to committees that were responsible for planning the programs. Reports on the latest developments in chemistry were part of every meeting. Panel discussions, field trips to the Hammond filtration plant and Standard Oil and a "bunsen brunch" added variety to the programs.

The Chemistry Club took its turn at entertaining the student body by presenting an assembly in the spring.

The experimenters, junior grade, had an opportunity to express their artistic talent when Jack Fisher and John Jendzel created a modern art monstrosity of glass, bent on their bursen burners.

Jury of Your Peers

The Student Panel this year, as in the past, has tried to help Clark students co-operate with the rules and regulations set up by the student government.

Student Council Vice-president Jack Fisher presided over the group's activities. Two important jobs were the supervision of the halls during the new double lunch periods and the trial of any student repeatedly mishehaving. The panel members also worked serving the refreshments at our Victory party.

Reorganized this year, the Pauel consisted of thirty-two students. They worked hard to improve our school.

Reviving an old policy, the Y-teens this year opened their membership to freshman girls again. This enabled any girl in high school to become a member of the organization.

The girls were divided into lour sections according to classification. The seniors were lead by Miss Marie Nordvig; juniors, Miss Leah Booth; sophmores, Miss Elizabeth Lyle; and Miss Betty Mansfield, a new sponsor this year, directed the freshmen.

Each group elected its own officers and held its individual meetings after school. They also had their own project of service.

These groups, however, met together once a month for an evening of education and entertainment. The girls heard speeches for a better tomorrow, throughout the year. It was at these meetings also, that they discussed their future plans and parties.

Hi-Y and Y-teen get-togethers were the outstanding events beside the annual fall initiation and the spring installation services.

Among the projects undertaken by the girls this year were the stuffing of animals for Christmas gifts, selling wonder sheets and putting on the annual Easter assembly.

"To face life squarely," their slogan, was one of the ideals the girls tried to follow.

This well describes the energetic girls of the Modern Dance club.

Modern dance is a creative art which not only helps those participating keep physically fit, but also learn to interpret music and create dances they feel fit the music.

Miss Leota Kenzie sponsored this group, which was newly organized two years ago. Since then, the girls have been asked to dance in music festivals, PTA gyn demonstrations and school assemblies. For the first time this year the group participated in the annual spring concert presented by the vocal groups.

Members were outstanding students in the gym modern dance class. These girls were asked to attend the weekly practices, and to become active members if they were interested.

OUR NEIGHBORS SOUTH OF THE BORDER

And then there are those who bend their efforts and linquistic talents to learn Spanish. These students joined together once a month during class time to expand their knowledge of countries "south of the border".

Miss Hazel Holland, sponser, added extra interesting facts throughout the year, as she told of her recent trip to Mexico. This last summer Miss Holland toured by car through the old Spanish country with friends. Driving through the cities and villages, she learned many customs that she was able to describe to the classes.

The Mexican Hat Dance was presented for the students in a spring assembly. The clubs enjoyed a journey to Indiana Harbor to the Mexican feast.

YOUNG HI-Y'ERS GROW AND DEVELOP INTO

The Frosh-Soph group of the Hi-Y's in their second year was sponsored by Mr. Edwin Martin. The group worked in preparing for the world in the future. Discussion groups and speakers aided the boys in becoming capable members.

"To create, maintain and extend, through the school and community, high standards of Christian character" is the pledge of purpose this boys' club carries Parties and meetings with the Senior Hi-Y were outstanding programs of the year. The boys also worked hard to make service a part of their growing plans which were formed early in the year.

CAPABLE SENIOR HI-Y MEMBERS

The calendar of the Senior Hi-Y was really well filled with activity. The year began with the organia membership drive in September, followed by a district conference at Caowin Point during the month of October. November brought the state conference which was held in Elkhart, Indiana, and then the annual initiation of new members. During the month of December, the boyy collected food for Christmas baskets. The coming of spring brought another district conference and the annual dance.

Services performed by the boys this year included the lirst book exchange in the history of Clark, alling refreshments at games and watching the doors during the hinch hours.

The Phys-Kids were organized under a new system this year. Instead of holding elections for the officers, students volunteered for the positions. Richard Ciesco was the prexy; George Varshal, vice-president; Nicholette Ganshaw, secretary: Joe Gerba, treasurer; and Paula Saylor, assistant secretary. The club, consisting of sixty-three of the physics class members, was sponsored by Mr. Edwin Martin.

Once a month the Phys-Kids held a meeting during a class period. Playing a vital part in the meetings was the showing of movies and slide films on subjects studied in the regular course. Along with the showing of movies, the club members gave individual reports on relevant subjects.

The Patrol boys proved faithful through wintry blizzards and spring showers. With protection of smaller children in mind, the boys, under the guidance of Mr. Edwin Martin, and Mr. Alvin Peterson, filled their duties admirably.

Awards were given for special service. Cecilia Bunchek is the outstanding member of Service club with six years of service.

NEWS IS OUR BUSINESS

Out of the clicking of typewriters and the cratching of pencils comes the weekly publication, the Pioneer News, Under the guidance of Mr. Gerald Royer, sponsor, Marlene Goldstein and Sydney Schlater, coeditors, the staff endeavored to present an interesting and accurate account of all school activities, plus leature colnums of student social like.

Two new columns were added to the paper this year, "Waggin Tongues" and "Inkspirations."

A never-to-be-forgotten event for eighteen scribes was the National Scholastic Press Association Conference in Chicago. This was held during Thanksgiving vacation, November 24-25. The conference headquarters was the Stephens Hotel. During the two-day session almost minety meetings were held, covering every phase of high school newspapers, yearbooks and magazines. Magazine exhibits of All-American winners proved to be a great help to the aspiring journalists.

Each job has its dirties, and each staff member works hard to make his work the best. With this work there is also fun. Surprise parties and feasts when the jobs lasted into the night will be remembered.

Fo raise money for much of the equipment, a dance was sponsored. A mineoscope and typewriter were just two of the new pieces that were added.

Because a scoop is what every paper wants, the staff worked into the wee hours on the sports page after an exciting football game. The page was ready bright and early the next morning, giving students the latest news.

The burden of supervising was lightened somewhat for Mr. Royer when Mr. Kermit Clyne came from Indiana University as a practice teacher in journalism. The stall strived to retain the All-American award received by last year's staff for best mineographed high school newspaper in Indiana and national competition.

During the second semester this year's staff received an All-American NSPA award for the first semester's work. Congratulations are in order to Sydney Schlater and Marlene Goldstein, who, with the aid of Mr. Royer, earned this honor.

This summer several of the staff members plan to attend a workshop at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. Mr. Royer taught there on the staff last summer.

"AND NOW WE HAVE CHAPTER 1.951"

Five hundred and forty year books this year meant more people to please, more pictures to take and more money to handle. Jeannette Latiak, subscription manager, worked throughout the year handling all the money for the pictures, books and materials. The advertising committee assisted in making the job a little easier. Headed by Ted Hill, the collected $1,015, which was something to be proud of. It took persistent effort to raise the amount over last year. These workers inaugurated the new idea of picture advertising. Jimmy Brooks and Jim Fisher were high salesmen and received gilt books for their work.

Rising prices were a big worry to Editor-mchief Betty Powell and her staff. Rather than cheapen the highly-rated Powder Horn, every one voted to increase the subscription price. The quality of materials remain the same as in last year's book, which received a first class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

The index in the back of the book is another new item that the picture names staff worked on this year. All students are listed alphabetically, with the teachers and organizations in cluded. After each person's name are the pages on which he or she appears in the book.

Although everyone did his job well, it would have been impossible to produce the book without the guidance of Mr. Gerald Rover, spousor. Mr. Rover spent long hours in directing the work and helping put the book together.

The stall wishes to acknowledge the co-operation of Bodies'; Johnny, the photographer; the Fort Wayne Engravers; the Fort Wayne Typographic Service Company; Defiance Printers; and the Kingstraft Cover Company for their work on the 1951 Powder Horn.

JUNIOR RED CROSS=BETTER CITIZENS

Who is it that cares for the Carmelite home! Kmits alghans for the veterans' hospitals? Sends books and magazines to St. Margarets hospital? And promotes world understanding? The answer is the Junior Red Cross, of course.

The group this year began its successful term under the direction of Miss Harriet Colman. Diana Wiley, president; assisted by Dolores Krieger, vice-president: Irene Economou, secretary; and Bill Nearholf, treasurer; earried out the plans of the organization. The guide to better citizens for the days to come, international service, and local service all were promoted by the students.

Funds for expenditures were raised at a March movie, "Sitting Pretty," which was presented at an afternoon assembly.

Bob Guager, Bill Nearhoff and Betty Powell represented the Clark council on one of the city-wide broadcasts held during the year.

Another big project was the Valentine party for the Carmelite boys. Committees worked on nut cups, food and entertainment for the occasion.

THE BAND PASSES IN REVIEW

Yes! The band marches by with all its glory and splendor. Bob Gauger, as drum major, led the 76 players through all the colorful drills.

Honor was brought to Clark when many of our soloists and ensembles received awards at contests in which the members participated.

The year started with the spirited band playing for football games and go no neigh thrilling formations at half times.

Basketball was not lorgotten as a loyal pep band showed up at many games. Two concerts were presented, the annual winter and spring concerts. At the latter awards were presented by Mr. Carlyle Snider, director. Other appearances were at school assemblies and pep sessions.

Band parties were always envied by other students. The Christmas party in the bandroom was full of frolic and Inn. The young musicians feasted on pop, ice cream, barbecues and potato chips. Daucing and games preceded the movies in the auditorium.

Edwin Blatnicky, president, supervised the organization in its active year.

HERE IS A HOLIDAY FOR STRINGS

Twenty-two students joined together to produce the beautiful melodies the orchestra displayed. Under the directorship of Mr. Darwin Eret, the group played for many school activities.

One of our assemblies was their first appearance. They also played for the Junior and Senior plays and gave a joint concert with the vocal music department and the band.

The String Ensemble and the Symphonette were two smaller groups taken from the orchestra. These groups played for various clubs that wanted orchestra music. Members of the orchestra also participated in the solo and ensemble contests.

Nickie Ganshaw and Irene Singel brought the orchestra honors by winning a first division rating in the solo and ensemble contest in East Gary.

Camille Dana, orchestra accompanist, was acclaimed for her presentation of "Rhapsody in Blue" for the Spring Musical Review, given by the vocal department. The big event of the year was the joint concert with our band. In January the two groups got together, after weeks of practice. January 24, the orchestra opened the Pop concert with layorite "Hungarian Comede."

Nicholette Ganshaw placed a violin solo, and Lorretta Nestor placed "The Revolution Ftude" by Chopin on the grand plano. The profits went for music equipment.

Boys' Glee Club members consisted of boys interested in singing together in close harmony during their Iree periods. By participating in all musical events, these boys received a great deal of stage experience. The songsters also stag for the Hammond Music Festival.

Girls' Ensemble is composed of the Double-Sextet and Triple Trio. Each group got together once a week to harmonize on many sougs.

Very well known singers, they were asked to perform at many teas and banquets.

Priscilla Stanzak, who gave a great deal of her time in accompanying this group and Boys' Glee Club, was not able to be in this picture because of illness.

WE RAISED OUR VOICES IN SONG

The Boys ensemble was originally the Boys Octet, but it was enlarged this year to include four more boys. This was to allow more talented male singers to have small group opportunities.

They joined their voices with the Girls Ensemble on several occasions.

What beautiful harmony! That's our A Capella Choir. Under the able direction of Miss Wilma Range, these singers represented a highly selected group from the less-experienced vocal students.

To open their very successful year they sang for the PTA.

MUSIC FILLS THE AIR

Miss Wilma Range, director of the vocal music department, worked hard to build these large groups of talent. Always full of new ideas and inspirations this busy little lady directed Winter Concert, the Christmas program and the Music Jestival.

Girls' Choir sang clearly in all the vocal presentations and programs. As you can see by their costumes these girls kept on the serious side of music.

Fun and work combined to make the Mixed Chorus an interesting class and a fine sirging group. They resounded through the school every seventh period as they enjoyed both classical and popular music.

Singing in the Winter Concert and spring musical were the high points of the year for the Mixed Chorus.

AND THE RAFTERS RING

Girls Chorus not only sang, but danced in the two big music prescutations. The Polish folk dance, given by some of the girls, was one of these unforgettable dances in the Winter Contert.

After many weeks of practice, Corinne Basick, Rita Chirby, Thespa Condo and Joan Mudrak presented the "Charleston" for the nuisic review in March.

All the choruses aided in graduation exercises and bacculaureate services.

"A little more eye shadow here."

"Spots!"

"Where can I find an oldfashioned doctor's bag?"

These comments all might have been heard coming from worried members of the stage crew, as they prepared to help make another of Clark's stage productions a success.

Directing activities, Miss Oza Cunningham supervised the techniques of backstage work. These include applying make-up, painting and fixing scenery and taking care of the lights.

THEY WORK IN THE WINDS

READIN', RITIN' AND FUN

Variety was the theme which prevailed at the amounth's meetings of the Literary Club this year. The programs included reading poetry by the lamous American and English authors, listening to reports given by students on their layoute author, listening to records, reading plays and developing their ability loc creative writing.

One of the big projects of the year was reading plays in order to select a collection of one-act plays for a Literary Club shell in the library. This shell will contain best works of literature.

Under the supervision of Miss Carolyn Lambert, the club had as its officers this year: Sophic Condo, president: Peggy Lou Nuckols, vice-president: Lerov Sparks, secretary, and Thespa Condo, treasurer.

Regular meetings were held on Thursdays.

Miss Lambert worked hard to make the club a success. Those who attended gained a valuable association with the best in literature.

They Lead the Crowd

Vim, vigor and vitality are all qualtities our inspiring cheerleaders possessed as they led us on to cheer. A booster club among themselves, the girb made large signs heralding our teams, throughout the year. The new cheers will always be remembered.

Cecilia, Carolyn and Jeanette had quite a time trying to hold up their spirits one evening. Starting out to a Clark Fort Wayne game, the girls had car trouble. By the time they reached Valparaiso, the car was dead. Not being able to continue they left the car in a garage and returned home via bus. The ending to this story was that Janet, who was in another car, was able to get there and lead the

A future nurses' organization was started at Clark this year for the first time. Its purpose was to promote and learn about the different fields in a nursing tareer.

Sponsored by Miss Patricia Hilliard, school nurse, the twenty-two members planued the meetings around nursing advantages. A movie on physically handicapped children, speakers from various medical fields and trips to local hospitals were on their program.

Next year the girls hope to continue to grow and explore the field of nursing.

a Word of Appreciation ...

- We are deeply grateful to the Alumni of Hartnett College, whose splendid records in business have made possible our growth and success as business educators. The distriction our young men and young women have brought to us is greatly appreciated.
- We invite into membership with us other young men and young women who may wish to follow in the steps of those who have achieved success and happiness in preparing for their life's work in our school.

Jerome P. Hartnett President

To the Graduating Class,

Our Congratulations

May the graduates continue their schooling, if so planned. Education need not, nor does not, stop with any school. Work, experience, environment and viewpoint, are the greatest educators. One must never stop studying.

Start your financial education in the earliest classes of grade school.
